Marty Partoll of Cedarcrest Academy to Compete in National Geography Bee

Cedarcrest Academy Student Advances to the Next Level of Competition in 2012 National Geography Bee

Maple Grove, MN, January 3rd, 2012: Cedarcrest Academy

On December 14th Marty Partoll, a 7th grader at Cedarcrest Academy in Maple Grove, made it to the first round of the 2012 National Geography Bee. For the 24th year, the National Geographic Society is holding the National Geographic Bee for students in the fourth through eighth grades in thousands of schools across the United States and in the five U.S. territories, as well as in the Department of Defense Dependents Schools around the world. The 2012 Bee is sponsored by Google.

Our winner, Marty Partoll, will advance to the next level of competition, a written examination to determine state competitors. All school winners are eligible to win the national championship and its first prize, a $25,000 college scholarship, at the national competition May 22-24, 2012 in Washington D.C.
